

Trung is the Director of Operations for 5G's office in Vietnam. He is in charge of all aspects of operations and project management for that office. Trung is exceptionally talented at design, project management and client relations, which makes him a very valuable asset not only to our Vietnam office but to 5G as a whole. Having practiced in the United States for 15 years before moving to Vietnam, Trung has demonstrated exceptional quality control and has built a very successful practice on understanding client's needs and exceeding their expectations.
